

Idaho UIC Program Revision Package
Element Four:

OTHER SENSITIVE GROUND WATER AREA PLAN

No additional sensitive ground water areas are being designated as part of this Primacy Revision package. All known ground water flow systems in Idaho are current or potential sources of drinking water and will be managed as such. The UIC statutes and rules are applicable in all jurisdictional areas in the entire state excluding lands within Tribal Nation boundaries.